

The Sixth edition of the

INTERNATIONAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION

in Law and Religion is coming soon!

After many successful editions, the International Moot Court Competition in Law and Religion is moving this year to Cordoba!

The 2022 edition is being organized within the framework of the 6th ICLARS Conference and it is sponsored by the International Center for Law and Religion Studies at BYU.

The Program will run from September 16 to September 17, 2022, in Cordoba, Spain.

Teams from, within, and outside Europe will argue a case before the European Court of Human Rights, or the Supreme Court of the United States or the Inter American Court of Human Rights. Pre-eminent scholars and actual judges from the three jurisdictions will sit as judges of the three Courts.

Have a look here, for a glimpse of the past editions, where Teams from the United States, Russia, the UK, and Italy gathered together and plead before prominent Judges.

The new case and all the details on the Competition will be available soon for download on the Moot webpage.

Stay tuned and do not miss a terrific opportunity to engage in a global conversation on Law and Religion!

Teams and individuals willing to participate in the program should email mccordoba2022@gmail.com.
